Approved For Release 2004/02/13 251X-RDP80-80910A002000 240007-6
COUNTRY Poland REPORT NO.
TOPIC 1. Polish Engineer Troops near Brieg and Podejuch and Soviet Troops in Ohlan
2. Registration of the 1933 Class and Unit 5892
EVALUATION 25X1 PLACE OBTAINED 25X1
DATE OF CONTENTprior to late 1952, and 28 March 1953
DATE OBTAINED 25X1 DATE PREPARED 3 July 1953
REFERENCES 25X1
PAGES 2 ENCLOSURES (NC. & TYPE)
REMARKS
	*>==
	14r - #-
25X1	_
0574	╛
25X1 l. In December 1952, a billeting area of Polish engineer troops 7 km east-southeast of Brieg (P 51/H 89) in the area north of the village of Schwanowitz 25X1 (P 51/H 99) and directly on the north side of the Koppenschoenau Canal.
25X1 Throughout 1952. Polist	Throughout 1952. Polish soldiers in the billeting area wore khaki uniforms and had conspicuous toots worn only exceptionally by soldiers of the Polish army.
25X1 travelling over the steel road bridge over the canal north of Schwano witz.	travelling over the steel road bridge over the canal north of Schwano witz.
magazines were at the water training ground in Podejuch (0 54/Q 55), west of the	In late 1952, about eight pontoons and some motor-vehicle storage sheds and ordnance magazines were at the water training ground in Pode such (0.54/Q.55), west of the railroad station between the railroad line and the east bank of the Uder hiver.	railroad station between the railroad line and the east bank of the Uder Miver.
25X1 site. Z
3. In December 1952, three large, low, wooden buildings which quartered Soviet troops were on the south side of the Oder Canal directly northwest of the railroad bridge over the canal in Ohlau (P 51/C 60). A large grain warehouse, which was equipped with a crane installation and was under Soviet Army administration, adjoined the 25X1 billets to the west. no heavy weapons or other conspicuous equipment with the Soviet unit.
4. During several trips between the mouth of the Neisse River and Stettin (P 54/Q 55) prior to December 1952. no forfifications on the east bank of the 25Y1 Oder River no construction work indicative of a ground organization except installations of Polish border guard troops.
25X1	u .
25X1 Comment. The engineer unit in Brieg was mentioned in several previous report. The unit probably still is the 1st Engr Regt, which by	.
CLASSIFICATION SECTET

SECRE?

	1		25X1
		- 2 -
25X1		previous report was cited as located in the Seydlitz	Kaserne or Mudra Kaserne.
25X1	2.	Comment. The occupation by Polish engineer units of the barracks installation in Podejuch was mentioned in several previous reports.
25X1	The 5th Engr Regt is carried there. 25X1 3. Comment. The present report discredits previous information on the construction of concrete pillboxes on the embankment along the Oder River.
25X1 25X25X1	4.		or unit which, /Katewice in April 1952, The

SECRET